Hi Folks!

The Tilted Steeple Coffee House falls on Saint Patrick's Day this month, so we will make sure to include some tunes to mark the occasion (but we won't be serving green coffee). We hope you can join us!

DAN MAYO

Dan is a country lawyer from Carp, Ontario and an old folkie left over from the sixties. He does children's music, as well as animal and environmental songs. He has recorded an album entitled Big Greenie Tunes (click here for a sample). This is Dan's first appearance at the Tilted Steeple Coffee House.

JIM ROBINSON

Jim is a Montreal-based singer-songwriter who performs locally as well as in the Ottawa, Lennoxville and Thetford Mines areas. Jim has seven CD's to his credit, featuring his distinctive voice, storyteller's sensibility, and sense of humour. His latest, Still in the Game, offers stories of shattered romantic relationships, the impossibility of always walking the straight and narrow, the stress of first meeting one's potential in-laws, or a young woman's fantasies about garbage collectors. Says Jim: "Really looking forward to being back at the TSCH and joining in this year's Saint Patrick's Day celebration!" Check out Jim's website at www.jimrobinson.ca

RICK VENTRELLA

Rick always knew how music made him feel, whether as a young boy dancing his heart out at weddings, as a teenager listening to his two aunts harmonizing around a campfire, or later playing some Cat Stevens tunes for the L'Arche community. As a songwriter, he draws from his own life experiences and strives to write songs that have something to say. Creating a good song is a real joy. Rick looks forward to sharing his music with the Tilted Steeple audience.

PLAIN FOLK is the group made up of Isabelle Delage, the organizer and host of the Tilted Steeple Coffee House, joined by her bandmates from Montreal, Mick Perreux and Val Teodori. Together they perform some of Isabelle's original material along with other songs, mostly from the Canadian folk repertoire. This month their program will include several Celtic-inspired tunes to mark Saint Patrick's Day. Be there and join in!
